

1-1. Team Building Workshop

Okay, everyone. As a part of our team building workshop, we're going to play Laser Tag. The goal is to reach a state of inner reflection, but we're not talking about the kind you can get from Chicken Soup for Employees. Just the reverse, in fact. So put on your numbered jerseys and find a place to hide in the arena. Then the obstacles will appear in all unoccupied squares, and we can watch the casualties add up.
