

Mascots

Often the guys in the suits have very little in common with their public personas.

BUTCH

This goatish rascal is known to appreciate salty humor, like Henny Youngman's jokes.

FANDANGO

This trippy 60's character arrived at his bright red hue through circular reasoning.

FANGBOY

Not all fans countenance Fangboy's catchphrase: "Just get by, somehow".

McFLUFF

As in the past, this cool cat grooves given any opportunity.

MR. PIDDLY

Mr. Piddly is a real friend to men of the cloth, like many of his forebears.

PRANKS

This funnyman has finely tuned his antics for boys and girls alike.

Mascots continued

SPLATS

This lovable scoundrel has jumped back and forth among a lot of sports teams.

STROPPY

This studly creature always hunts after the big bucks.

STUMPY

This farmyard fowl with an underground following is more in vogue than ever.

TALLOW

Tallow shows how to entertain a kid while using very few words.

TEACHESTERSE

TINKLES

Tinkles can be seen impersonating Jewel while at the piano.

WAGGINGTON

This quaint old timer's use of words sometimes verges on the bizarre.
